

Keith Schooler

Artistic Curriculum Vitae

619-823-0221

San Diego, California 92116

KSchooler03@cox.net

<http://www.KeithSchooler.com>

Keith Schooler began writing creatively after being an avid reader and researcher his entire life.

- First article, a history of the school band, was published in the local newspaper when he was in high school.
- Has had works published in magazines in Minneapolis and San Diego.
- Wrote emcee scripts for wind ensemble concerts, as well as a number of unpublished stories and essays.
- Privately published a book on his family's history, which dates to the seventeenth century.
- Currently working on several short stories and an historical novel based on the research he did into his family history.
- Plays bass clarinet in the Hillcrest Wind Ensemble.
- Pursues interest in digital photography.